SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER:

CEDRIC BARBER

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER:

Cedric Barber is a Stoke-on-Trent man who occasionally crosses the border into Cheshire!

He is a Christian who has worked in many occupations over the years including retail, insurance, Police, and transport. He claims to have been a proud, self-sufficient man who has been humbled by the love and grace of God – though he's still a 'work in progress'!

Cedric is married to Jean, and since 'retiring' in 2011, together they have put on over 100 Saturday evening community events, inviting local people along. These events are called 'UNITE', and their aim is to promote love and harmony among Christians from all different backgrounds and cultures. They have also seen many folks' lives changed for the better after coming to understand the Good News of Jesus Christ. Cedric's passion is for people to grasp the truth of this message and to be able to make an informed decision about Jesus and become His followers

Special Christmas Event - a warm welcome to all!

'At Hankelow' is a series of non-denominational meetings to encourage and strengthen the community in the Christian faith. For more information email: at_hankelow@aol.com
